REMEMBERING WILLIAM M. DETWEILER

● Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. President, today I rise to honor the life and legacy of William M. Detweiler who passed away on March 27, 2019, at age 79. Mr. Detweiler was a lifelong advocate for veterans and a former national commander of the American Legion. His commitment to our country stands as a shining example for every American. He leaves behind a legacy of compassion for his fellow servicemembers that touched everyone who knew him.

Mr. Detweiler was born in New Orleans, LA, on January 28, 1940. He was a graduate of St. Aloysius High School and Loyola University, where he earned both his undergraduate and law degrees.

Mr. Detweiler served as a captain in the U.S. Army Intelligence Corps and, later, as assistant chief of staff for the U.S. Army Defense Center at Fort Bliss, TX. He then joined the U.S. Army Reserve and returned home to New Orleans to practice law.

During his law career, Mr. Detweiler served on various local, State, and national veterans committees. In 1973, President Nixon appointed him to serve on the Veterans Administration's National Rehabilitation and Education Advisory Committee, which he later went on to chair.

As a member of the American Legion, Mr. Detweiler served in a number of capacities including Department of Louisiana judge advocate, chairman of the National Public Relations Commission, chairman of the National Foreign Relations Commission, national vice commander, and national commander.

While serving as national commander of the American Legion, he fought for the extension of service-connected disability benefits for Vietnam veterans exposed to Agent Orange. He was also involved in the planning and development of the National D-Day Museum in the heart of New Orleans, which later became the National WWII Museum.

In his most recent leadership role with the American Legion, Mr. Detweiler served as the chairman of the organization's traumatic brain injury—TBI—and posttraumatic stress disorder—PTSD—committee. He was serving as chairman of that committee on March 27, 2019, when his final battle, with pancreatic cancer, came to an end.

William M. Detweiler was a tireless advocate for the veterans community, and we thank him for his lifetime of service to our country.●

REMEMBERING EUGENIA "GENIE" ZAVALETA

● Ms. SINEMA. Mr. President, today I wish to honor the life and legacy of Eugenia "Genie" Zavaleta, a community leader who passed away in Tempe, AZ, on April 6, 2019, at the age of 92. Genie Zavaleta was a fighter for immigration reform, advocate for the DREAM Act, and a dedicated voice for DACA recipients. Our State will miss her dearly.

Genie Zavaleta described her life's concerns as "her family, education, health care, family planning, the environment, poverty and injustice, the Presbyterian Church and the Democratic Party." Throughout her life, she served these issues through educator and advocacy roles within the Presbyterian Church, the Migrant Ministry of the National Council of Churches, Planned Parenthood of Arizona, and the Maricopa County Health Department.

Her immense advocacy work within the migrant community began in 1958, when she and her husband Hector took on roles to serve migrant farm laborers known as braceros. In 1965, Genie Zavaleta and her family moved to Arizona, where she focused on helping migrant workers acquire new skills to adjust to Arizona's rapid industrialization. Eventually, Genie Zavaleta became a fierce advocate for DACA recipients and the DREAM Act.

Genie Zavaleta is survived by her husband Hector, her sons Dan and David, and their wives Nori and Linda. She will be dearly missed by other family members, friends, and the hundreds of people whose lives she touched.

Please join me in honoring her memory.●
